CARLSTADT, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1915

No. 6

Tripola

A. E. Birc and Dan MacFarlane were Carlstadt callers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown were visiting at Tripola on Tuesday last.

J. L. Brown spent a few days at J. C. Anderson's, auditing the King Municipality books.

Elwin Potter and George Whitehead were visiting the MacFarlane brothers last week.

A number from Tripola attended the meeting and dance at Blue Grass. They report having spent a very enjoyable time.

Miss Jean McKibbin and Austin McKibbin called on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lane Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jon and family were callers at A. Trueman's Monday.

A. Trueman and J. C. Anderson made a business trip to Carlstadt Tuesday.

Items from New Holland

Miss A. van Dyke, of Winnipeg, is the latest arrival in our settlement. She arrived last week, and is staying at her sister's.

Last Saturday a U.F.A. was organized at a meeting held in the church. Twenty-two new members were taken in.

Mr. von Weert of Medicine Hat, accompanied J. H. von den Berg on his last trip from there. While here he purchased a cow from Mr. Lemna.

J. H. vonden Berg visited at J. G. Warmink's one day this week.

Injured in Gas Explosion

W. H. Hutchinson of the S.A.L. Co., met with a severe accident while working on the company's gas well in Suffield. While drawing the water from one of the gas mains a quantity of gas which had leaked from the pipe, became ignited in some way. Mr. Hutchinson was badly burned, but had sufficient strength to crawl from the hole and put out the flames by rolling in the snow. Medical help was summoned from Medicine Hat and the injured man was taken to the Hat General hospital; where he is doing nicely.

Back to Carlstadt

George Beattie has returned from Medicine Hat to his homestead four miles north of town for the summer. The report that he had moved to Gull Lake was incorrect, it being in regard to a different party of the same name.

He has 320 acres of land here and at Bow Island all ready for crop, and is having the remaining eighty acres of homestead broken and part of it seeded to flax. Crop prospects look good to him. Mr. Beattie and family and her mother, Mrs. Finders, will arrive this month to take up permanent residence in their town home. Extensive improvements will be made to the premises as soon as the winter permits.

All things come to those who wait—if they wait on themselves.

A big part of the wheat fighting campaign is to sow clean seed.

Doing a Great Work

Ensign L. Bryenton, of the Salvation Army, was in Carlstadt on Monday to collect money in aid of their Rescue Home and Children's Home in Calgary. Few persons there are who have any idea of the great work done by the Army, for their deeds are done quietly and without show. In Calgary last year nearly fifty unfortunate girls were cared for, and started on the upgrade. The child is cared for until it is adopted or the mother is able to care for it. In the past 85% of the girls have been reclaimed. The Army also has a Children's Home where an average of thirty children are provided for. Any information can be had from 332 2nd Ave N.E., Calgary, and contributions will be thankfully acknowledged.

Officers Selected By "Drys"

A convention for the purpose of organizing the temperance forces in this constituency was held Tuesday in the Presbyterian Church, Redcliff. At the afternoon session Dr. Shearer, who is one of the men going through the province to form an organization in every electoral constituency, outlined the plan of campaign; putting before the meeting the proposed Act and explained what it would do and what it would not do. Dr. Shearer said the plan was to form to a central executive in each riding, to work in conjunction with the provincial executive; the central executive to form an organization in each polling division of its particular constituency. After the discussion, in which many questions were asked and answered, an organization was formed for the Redcliff riding with the following officers:

President, Rev. Gordon, Redcliff
1st vice president: R. Wray, Redcliff.

2nd vice president, W. G. Scolard, Carlstadt.

3rd vice president: Rev. Waggett, Empress.

Secretary-treasurer: Rev. F. Clyde, Carlstadt.

At the mass meeting held in the Reed hall in the evening Dr. Shearer gave an inspiring address which was much appreciated.

The delegates from Carlstadt were Rev. F. E. Clysdale, E. G. Gish, R. H. Thornton.

The Government Officer will be in Jenner on February 23 to purchase military horses.

Many a man seems mean when he is only hard up.

Farewell Party - Not Quite!

Claude Woolven has decided to join the colors in defense of his country, and is going to Medicine Hat tonight to enlist. If he is successful in passing the exams, he probably will go to the war as Orderly to Captain Pingle, Quartermaster of the Mounted Rifles. Later: After a farewell party had been arranged, a thorough rumination convinced Claude that he would not go, for the present at least.

Nearing End of 3000-Mile Trip

Jack Hughes, travelling from Fort Chippewa, (1000 miles north of Edmonton) to Chicago with a dog team and sleds, has arrived at Duluth, Minnesota. That leaves only 500 miles yet to be covered of the 3000 mile hike, and he still has ten days left, so that he has a very good chance to win the $1000 wager.

Home Talent Minstrels

Under the auspices of the Young Men of Carlstadt, a home talent minstrel show is to be staged here the latter part of the month. Watch for the date and begin to plan right now to be in town that day, for it will be the one big event of the season.

Death of John H. McRae

Word has just come of the death at Eureka, Montana, of John H. McRae, formerly a homesteader in the Tide Lake district. The news is contained in a letter from his cousin, A. A. McRae, of Cabri, Saskatchewan.

C.N.R. Grade

Mayor Hawthorne, of Medicine Hat, has just returned from a trip to Ottawa, and gives us his opinion that the C.N. Medicine Hat to Hanna line will be continued in the summer.

Spent Month in Hospital

M. C. Peters and wife returned Tuesday from the city, and have gone out their farm north of town. Mr. Peters was in the Calgary hospital a month, suffering from the "shingles."

Government Relief

Government relief is again being handled by local agents, it being found that the task could not be managed satisfactorily by the Police.

A Word to the Ladies

Upon the women of our communities depends the success or failure of the spend-or-money-at-home movement. This fact cannot be impressed too strongly on those who would correct the tendency to spend so much of it abroad. Among the questions that must be answered are these: Why is so much money sent out for goods that could be bought at home? Is it because of custom, or because they can really be bought cheaper? There is no doubt that custom has much to do with out-of-town purchasing. The big city departmental stores, with their extensive mail order systems, have a strong attractive force. But those who follow closely their operations know full well that when quality is taken into account, these so-called bargains are more apparent than real. Money makes the mare go, is an old saying, and it has just as much to do with making the community go. Our smaller cities and towns will languish as long as our people will send away the cream of the retail trade.

Mounted Police are looking into shooting affair reported in last week's Brutus items, in which Sam Boyd was shot in the arm.

Arrangements are being made to secure one of the travelling libraries for Carlstadt, as mentioned in the News last week.

Four inches more of "the beautiful" fell on Wednesday. That fifty bushels to the acre is getting closer.

Geo. McKee and Arthur Hughes of the bank, spent the week-end in Bassano and Redcliff, respectively.

Brooks school gas bill for two months was $70. They are going to go back to using coal.

Monday was government hay day, and a large number of farmers secured a good supply.

Royal

A crowd from Haldland attended the dance at Helgoland on the 5th, and reported a good time.

Fred Mellon called on Mr. Kimball Sunday.

Floyd Kimball is hauling coal from Carlstadt this week.

Mr. Mellon and son Frank and Mr. Elliot were Carlstadt visitors this week.

Our school is progressing nicely now under Mr. Hunter as teacher. Ernest Kimball called at his father's home Sunday.

Hugo Smith purchased a team from J. M. Foghty last week.

Messrs Broderon have a new Edison photograph with a fine selection of records. There will be some music now.

M. Ballard called on H. E. Kimball, while in Medicine Hat, and reports him gaining nicely. We hope to see Mr. Kimball home again soon.

Mr. Peterson was on the sick list last week. We hope you are better now Peter.

Ernest Sears was up from Medicine Hat to visit Mr. Broderon last week.

The Royal Literary society met at the school Saturday night. After a short program, they had a very lively debate and afterwards some dancing.

Mrs. Dorsey is at home again but Mr. Dorsey is still in Calgary.

THE CLEVER ANT.

How Tiny Insect Tells His Friends From Enemies.

Students of the behavior of ants are well aware of the fact that they will not tolerate strange ants in their midst. If a foreigner even tries to enter the same species and indistinguishable to human eyes from the profitable inhabitants of the nest strays in from the outside, he is apt to be smothered, pursued and attacked by the ants which belong there. How do they know that she is a foreigner? It does not seem likely that among the thousands of human eyes that see the ants, another ant of exactly the same appearance should be recognized as a stranger by her appearance. The English naturalist, Lord Avebury, in his book on "Ants, Bees and Wasps," published nearly thirty years ago, records some experiments to test the possibility that an ant may recognize their nestmates through some movement of the feelers or antennas, with which they sometimes seem to greet each other when they meet.

He stippled with alcohol ants from different nests and carried them near one of the nests. The ants from that nest came out and carried them away, but by something other than their feelers.

A German physiologist, Bethe, has carried his experiments a step further. He suspected that ants from a foreign nest might have an odor that would be warlike to ants of the home nest. Accordingly, he took some ants from a nest he had killed them, and crushed their bodies so that the body fluids were released. Taking some live ants from a second nest, he first dipped them in ether and alcohol, and then into the body fluids of the other ants. He returned them to their own nest. Their nestmates felt upon them as if they had been total strangers, and they were driven out, and in some instances killed.

On the other hand, Bethe found that the foreign nest, the odor of which they now presumably bore, would receive peacefully the ants which had undergone the treatment.

Other observers have confirmed these results of Bethe's, for many species of ants. The truth then seems to be that ants are able to distinguish their own from those of a foreign nest.

It is true that this explanation requires one to suppose that a different odor belongs to every nest, and it seems hard to believe, yet nothing else appears to account for the facts.

There are many other remarkable things about the sense of smell in insects, and it must be remembered that the sense of smell in human beings is far inferior to that of some animals. The matter of the dog cannot judge the capacities of other animals, the master of smell by his own poor perceptions.

Two of a Kind.
Jones had a leg up in the world and was mighty proud of his new position. Not long since he met a man who in his submerged days had been a chum but who had remained in the old rut. "Hello, Brown!" said Jones, smiling at his friend. "You haven't been to see my new house yet. Can you come on Friday?" Brown expressed pleasure at the thought. "Yes," he murmured Jones, "we're having a small party. Twenty-four guests coming out, you know." Brown stretched his head and winked. "His mind wavered. A stab of caution recognition came to him. "I've just remembered, old chap," said he, "our time coming out Friday. He's had fifteen days. Jones looked a little bit. "But," added his old friend, "long's your daughter, had!"

Paradise Fish.
There flourishes a Chinese river and takes a small fish remarkable for its brilliant coloring of crimson and blue. It is called the paradise fish. In the sunlight it shows in rainbow hues. The dorsal fin extends far above the surface of the water and the caudal fin is like a tail. The paradise fish was first brought to France from China by M. Simon in 1860, having been found in a broad river near Canton. The most interesting thing about this little fish is the nest made by the male of glistening bubbles below the surface of the water and measuring up to six inches across. Here it places the eggs, some 200 in number, and mounts guard over them during incubation.

Nash's Time and Now.
Once an old Scots weather prophet at Widdlingthame informed Mr. Baillie that "it's gae to rain exactly two days, sir." "Come, come," said the statesman, "surely the world was entirely flooded in forty days." "Aye, aye," was the response, "but the world wasn't sea level drained as it is now."—London Strand.

Suffering.
There is no finer chemistry than that by which the element of suffering is so commingled with vigorous health that it issues to the world in genius and strength.—George S. Merriam.

The Stingy Man's Gift.
Patrick worked for a notoriously stingy boss and lost no chance to let the fact be known. Once a wasteful friend, willing to let him, remarked: "Pat, I hear your boss just gave you a brand new suit of clothes." "No," said Pat, "only a part of a suit."

"What part?"
"The sleeves in the vest."

His Destination.
"Is Mike Clancy long?" asked the driver at the quarry just after the premature explosion.
"No, sir," replied Clancy; "he's gone."

For good?
"Well, sir, he went in that direction."—Tit-Bits.

CITY BUILDING AND DULL TIMES

How to Make a City of 15,000 Population—It is up to the Canadian Consumer

In a speech delivered before the Sherbrooke Board of Trade, Mr. J. H. Sherrard, Vice-President of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, made some striking statements about the "Made-in-Canada" movement.

After a general presentation of the arguments for the "Made-in-Canada" idea, dealing particularly with present conditions, Mr. Sherrard showed very conclusively what the practical application of the doctrine in the purchase of the everyday consumer would mean.

Adding Cities

Mr. Sherrard referred to Sherbrooke as an important city and said there were only twenty-two other cities in Canada as large or larger, and that he resists that if the boots now made in the United States and sent to Canadians were made in Canada, it would add another city to Canada as large as Sherbrooke? Canada was thought to be a great paper-making country, but did they know that if the business men of Canada would specify a Canadian paper for their stationery, it would add another town to the Dominion the size of Sherbrooke? They all knew the value of a busy woman mill to a city, and yet when he, the speaker, asked his tailor to show him some Canadian tweeds he looked at him with a sort of mild pity and replied he did not make them up.

When asked to have some samples ready the next morning the tailor looked troubled and said his jobber from whom he bought his cloth did not carry Canadian tweeds. After the tailor in question had been informed they would be very stylish next year, and that the speaker intended finding a tailor who could keep him dressed up to the minute, the samples arrived the next morning, and they were as good as any West of England cloth.

Made in Sherbrooke

In fact, they were so good that he was suspicious, and on asking the tailor he informed him they were made in Sherbrooke. One thing that impressed the speaker about his Canadian suit was that it cost considerably less than he had been accustomed to pay, and that was one of the chief obstacles to popularizing Canadian goods of a better class. The tailor did not make as much money as he could out of imported cloths.

Made-in-Canada Slogans

When we purchase goods "Made-in-Canada" Canadians get the goods.

And Canadians keep the money in circulation.

Canadian labor is employed, And Canadians are not called upon to support the families of the unemployed.

When we purchase foreign made goods Canadians get only the goods.

Canadians do not get the money for circulation.

Foreigners get the Money, And foreign labor is employed while Canadian workers are idle.

"MADE-IN-CANADA" AND UNEMPLOYMENT

How Civil Engineers Furnish Work For Mechanics in Foreign Countries—Widened For Canadians

In the months of September, October and November, 1913, a Toronto manufacturing concern, one of the largest employers of labor in that city, tendered on three different City contracts, its aggregate tenders for the three jobs being $44,845. The contracts were awarded, respectively, to firms in Glasgow, Philadelphia and New York, whose aggregate tenders were $24,538, 2307 or less than one-half of 1% below those of the Toronto firm. Hundreds of this firm's employees have been laid off in the last few months through lack of work. The contracts embraced pumps, machinery and iron castings.

In Whinago a few months ago the City Council awarded to the American Cast Iron and Foundry Company of Birmingham, Ala., a contract for 1,100 tons of castings, approximately $100,000 worth of work. A Port William firm, whose price was only $800 more than that of the United States firm, lost the contract while most of its plant was idle and hundreds of unemployed were walking the streets of Port William.

The Works Department in Toronto purchased its 1913 supply of paving bricks, valued at approximately $45,000, for the most part in the United States. If Toronto brick makers had secured the wages involved in this contract, instead of their rivals in Ohio, many more would be in the bread line, would have had several months longer work, and therefore more savings to tide them over the period of stress.

It would be unreasonable to demand under all circumstances that Civil Engineering Departments should buy the "Made-in-Canada" product.

It would be found, however, that if the total cost of Toronto's unemployment relief measures were added to the contract price of foreign firms, who secured orders in competition with Canadian firms in Canada, that there would be no margin in favor of the outsiders. Self help is the best form of philanthropy, and by helping Canadian factory workers and Canadian manufacturers to secure a larger share of civil business, Canadian cities would be insuring against unemployment.

The purchase of $1,000 of goods in our own city, or in our own country means the purchase of goods means the addition of one man and his family to Canada instead of supporting him abroad.

FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

BECAUSE Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall and insures good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures best returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Block is no longer an experiment, the year 1914 having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever intelligently applied.

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices ranging from $35 to $75 per acre, with twenty years' to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000.00 for improvements (6% interest); no principal payment at the end of first and second years and a water rental for first year. Assistance is also given in supplying stock in approved instances.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record.

Regular and irregular meetings of the village Clack Club are now being held. Meetings at almost any back door and at almost any time. Ladies wishing to be admitted must have doctors certificate showing a healthy pair of lungs.

The circulating library is now in full swing and the librarian is a very busy man these days.

Polonia

Mrs. A. Bosjolie, of Jenner, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tommy Gray for a few days.

Miss Bernice Zimmerman is visiting the Misses Lemna at Tripoli this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Swift called on
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mills on Sunday last.

The dance held at C. A. Wallace's on Wednesday was well attended considering the bad weather and bad roads.

A number of Polonians attended the U.F.A. dance at Blue Grass on Friday.

C.E. Baldie, who has been spending a few days with C. A. Wallace, returned to his home on Monday.

R. Housenman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gray.

Dreamland

Mr. and Mrs. L. Nelson and family, E. L. Dodd and Jack Hinkle Jack Hinkle has an imported cook from Helena, Montana.

August Oswald and Helmer Peterson went to the Gordon ranch Tuesday, to get the horses which went away three months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster James will receive the second Tuesday of each month, beginning in June.

Clint Baldie says there's no place like the White Mountains.

This district was well represented at the Blue Grass dances Friday night.

R. H. James and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Johnson.

Apley Ben's smiling face will be seen in Sunny Alberta in a couple of weeks.

E. L. Dodd is growing a Van Dyke beard. He says he is preparing for mosquitos in the summer.

GENERAL SIR DAVID
HENDERSON

Commander of Britain's Royal Flying Corps. He organized the aviation branch of the service, and his excellent work has been praised both by Gen.
French and General Joffre.

The W. A. held thier regular yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Albert Colé. The next meeting is expected to take the form of a quilting bee: and will be held on Wednesday February 24th, at 3 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. W.
M. Cotter.

Difficulties are the things that show what men really are.

Tide Lake

We are very glad to see in the News that it was a mistake about the Editor being in Ponoka. Of course we sometimes think he should be, but then--

Nels Ronning has left for Car-managay after a short time.

The stage failed to get here Friday, being delayed a day by heavy trails. Still, Mr. Koopman has a good record for landing the mail here in the worst of weather.

Mr. Allen informs us that his wife is not coming to Alberta until spring.

We see by the papers that the government has begun to order the feed and seed oats, but that it has most all been shipped out of the country.

Al Lee spends his evenings playing a new brand of solitary called
"21 or Bust."

Emile Berg made several attempts to ski up hill to a party Monday, but failed to get over the hump.

Education Was Sadly Neglected and haked us what "The Victory of "Honyocker" means a farmer, the Honyockers" referred to. For but a number of our readers had never heard the expression before in proper form.

The Victory of the Farmers

Written by a Tide Lake Farmer

Over this entire district the farmers have mobilized their forces and are making advances simply unbelievable to those who have not seen the entrenched fields and advantageous positions these sturdy allies now occupy. Well made summer fallow mark their lines of advance. It is a conquest of which no one need ever be ashamed, in which all taking part may forever be proud. No want or ruin is in their wake, and no power on earth can loosen their hold on the wide strip of country they have already taken. They have not yet ascertained the extent of their booty, but intend to continue the pursuit of the bug-a-boo enemy assisted by the help of the Snow King.
